

A Message for Clear Lake Boaters

Sewage waste discharged from boats degrades water quality by introducing disease-causing micro-organisms into the marine environment and depressing oxygen levels. This can result in fish kills and may render the water unsuitable for swimming and recreational use.

www.galvbay.org